

DO IT WITH CLASS YOUNG PEOPLE'S THEATRE

Do It With Class Young People's Theatre Inc. (DIWC) is a performing arts theatre company, unique to Saskatchewan, which fosters the development of high-level performing arts skills in children and youth ranging in age from 8-18.

DIWC provides Saskatchewan youth with performance opportunities and training in a range of performance arts, including dance, voice, drama, and musical theatre production.

We are a company that trains Saskatchewan's theatre artists of the future.

Many graduates of the company have gone on to become professional performers, including Paul Nolan, who is currently playing Guy in Once on Broadway and who recently played Jesus in the ever-popular Jesus Christ Superstar, on Broadway; Tatiana Maslany, who stars in the BBC America series Orphan Black; Amy Matysio, who plays Kenny in the comedy series Single White Spenny, currently airing on Showcase, Jacqueline Burtney as Purity and Erma in Roundabout Theatre's production of Anything Goes; and many others such as Jeff Irving, Kyle Golemba, Tess Degenstein, Sara-Lys Huck and Ingrid Nilsen.

Under the direction of Robert Ursan, the company delivers theatre and musical theatre productions of the highest quality for its audiences. A highly trained professional performer, vocalist, musician and composer himself, Robert is both artistic director and music director for the company.

A registered non-profit corporation which was originally founded in 1993 by Andorlie Hillstrom, Do It With Class offers 3 major full scale productions which take place at the University of Regina Riddell Theatre and the Conexus Arts Centre.

The company is currently in its 21st year and will be showcasing the talents of 52 children and youth performers in its 2014-2015 season, which will feature Dear Edwina (October 22-24), As You Like it (Feb 25- 27), and Peter Pan (March 31 – April 1).

Past productions performed by members of the company include: Titanic, Bugsy Malone, Romeo and Juliet, Seussical, Les Miserables, Willy Wonka, Little Prince, A MidSummer Night's Dream, The Wiz, Snow Queen, Into the Woods, The Wind in the Willows, Cats, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, Alice in Wonderland and more. A number of the productions including Alice in Wonderland, Snow Queen and Little Prince have been created, written and the music composed by Artistic Director Robert Ursan.
